POLICE REPORT

February 6, 1984

To The Honorable Selectmen:
Richard Hicks, Jr., Chairman
Frank Owen
William Weir

Gentlemen:

Again with pride, I present my annual budget and activity for the year 1983.

The Police Department was pleased that there were less thefts, as well as other serious crimes this year than last. We did cover more Motor Vehicle accidents this year than last, due to people being a little more careless, along with bad weather and road conditions. We were disturbed that we investigated one fatal Motor Vehicle accident.

During this past year, again I am pleased to have saved the Taxpayers of the Town of Colebrook money, due to savings throughout the Police Budget, and also, the effort and coordination between the Police Department and Selectmen.

This year, there was a large turnover in Police Officers. Sergeant Roland Streeter resigned in February, and was replaced by Officer Roger Pond, Sr., who will be resigning shortly to go into a full-time recruiting job with the National Guard. Jeffrey Cauller has been hired to replace Roger, as the third full-time patrolman. Jeff will be attending the Police Academy in Concord, New Hampshire, during this year.

Howard C. Weber and Randall Dobson have been hired this year as Special Police Officers. Both have completed the Part-time Police Officers School, held in Gorham, New Hampshire, during this year.

The new Jaws of Life tool, manned by the Colebrook Fire Department, was used once during the year, to free a young woman from a Motor Vehicle accident just across the town line in Columbia.

A group of concerned citizens are starting work on organizing a Humane Society. The Police are supportive and cooperating with this effort. Hopefully, in the near future, there will be a shelter provided for unwanted animals, and clinics set-up to have pets spayed or neutered.

Again, I would like to thank the Selectmen, the Citizens of the Town of Colebrook, for their continued support, guidance, and cooperation, in helping make our job easier. A thanks also, to Troopers Howard Weber, Robert Bruno, and John Barthelmes, of the New Hampshire State Police, Deputy Sheriff Thomas Pryor, the North Country REACT Team; whom during the year are a big help to the Police Department, the Colebrook Communications, for excellent dispatching and clerical work, and a special thanks to the members of my department.

With us all pulling together, let us make 1984 another safe and secure year.

Respectfully,

Wayne H. Cross
Chief of Police

COLEBROOK PUBLIC LIBRARY

Just under 24,000 books, magazines, records, tapes, patterns, puppets, and puzzles circulated during the year. This is a substantial increase over last year with a good percentage being from circulation of children's books and materials. Over 800 new books were purchased, donated or given as gifts in memory of a loved one. A book sale at Summerfest relieved us of discarded books and donated second-hand books that could not be used.

Frances Haynes, Children's Librarian, completed another two courses in the Public Library Techniques Program during the spring and fall.

Films were shown during the summer for young children, with a good turnout each week.

In early summer, the Kiwanis donated a sum of money to be used for early childhood development. Over 100 puppets and puzzles were purchased for children to take home, play with and return. These are circulated real well.

At the November meeting of the Statewide Library Program, I was elected chairperson for Forum I, the northern most region. At present the state library system is making several changes and adding new concepts including computer data retrieval and media-mobile vans to go to shut-ins and nursing and group homes.

We ended the year with Christmas story telling for preschoolers done several Saturday mornings by Rita Turner.

Respectfully submitted,

Mary Lynch
Librarian
